

Reading Tutors Needed!

ATTENTION: HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS GRADES 10-12!

The Cherry Hill Public Library, in partnership with The American Youth Literacy Foundation (YouthLit), is currently looking for responsible & outgoing high school students in grades 10-12 to tutor elementary school children in reading. This is an evening or weekend opportunity to earn COMMUNITY SERVICE HOURS while making a real difference in a child's life and in the Cherry Hill community.

For more information call The Cherry Hill Public Library's Youth Services Department at 856-903-1229.

Online Training

All potential tutors are required to complete online training sessions & tests (approximately 16 hours of training). Tutors will receive community service hours for this time upon completion of training and will be certified to be a reading tutor at The Cherry Hill Public Library or other participating library of their choice.

To start your training visit www.YouthLit.org, click on "how to become a tutor" and complete the online form.

Tutoring

Tutoring will take place at The Cherry Hill Public Library.

Tutors should be available once to twice a week during the following days and times:

Wednesdays 5:30p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Saturdays 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. or 1 p.m. - 3 p.m.

About Youth Lit:

The American Youth Literacy Foundation (Youth Lit) is a 501(c)(3) charitable non-profit dedicated to the belief that all children deserve an equal opportunity to learn how to read and that high school students can help younger students achieve reading proficiency. We are based in Collegetown, PA near King of Prussia and operate at 14 locations in Pennsylvania and New Jersey providing free tutoring to underprivileged and under-served children in grades 1-5. Youth Lit trains high school student volunteers to become qualified "literacy mentors." Youth Lit then partners with community outreach programs including YMCA's, public libraries, and other non-profit organizations, to provide one-on-one coaching to children who need extra help with reading.
